NOTES

- <sup>1</sup> Students may take these courses if eligible. Eligibility is determined by either ACT or COMPASS scores. Some students may be required to take developmental classes first. If required, these developmental courses will be in addition to the courses shown on the first page.
- <sup>2</sup> Students planning to transfer should contact the transfer institution when selecting a math course. MATH 1100 is required for many degree programs at many institutions. MATH 1300 is sometimes, but less frequently, required or accepted.
- <sup>3</sup> The number of hours needed and total hours remaining assume the successful completion of all courses in progress noted on this curriculum sheet.

WHEN AND HOW TO APPLY FOR YOUR RPCC DEGREE

All students planning to graduate from RPCC must schedule an appointment with the Director of Counseling Services the semester prior to the one in which you plan to graduate. During this appointment, you will complete an Application for Degree, a final degree audit, and a Graduate Survey. To schedule an appointment, call the Office of Student Services at 225-675-8270. To shorten your appointment time, you may complete the Application for Degree in advance of your appointment. It is available online (www.rpcc.edu; Current Students; Graduation Information).
